PRODUCT & BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

GilLog — Founder & Full-Stack Developer Jul 2026–Present

Location-based diary app · Expo / React Native · AI-assisted development

- Independently built and published GilLog on the Apple App Store and Google Play, combining routes, photos and shared memories in a mobile app.
- Owned product planning and full-stack development, using AI coding tools to implement and iterate on the product.
- Registered the business in South Korea and recruited four team members across operations, technical leadership, development and design.
- Led product direction and coordinated development priorities and responsibilities as the solo project expanded into a team-operated business.

SpoAny — Overseas Manager, Freelance May 2025–Present

- Analyzed five competing gyms within a 2 km radius, comparing pricing, promotions, facilities and customer activity to inform business proposals.
- Compared Korean and U.S. fitness markets to identify acquisition and retention factors; supported communication between Korean headquarters and the U.S. side.

LEADERSHIP

PIC, Penn State — Founder & President Dec 2025–Present

- Founded a student club and grew membership to 50 through direct recruitment, activity planning and club operations.
- Led challenges including skydiving, on-campus sales to test business ideas, and forming teams to operate businesses.
